

Keen to learn a variety of participation techniques you can use for group meetings? Want to develop effective group cohesion?

Facilitating Community-led CHANGE

When: Thursday, September 13th, 9:30am - 4:00pm

Where: Mornington Presbyterian Community Centre,
Maryhill Terrace, Mornington, Dunedin

Cost: $70 for non-profits and community groups. $200 for local/central government, funders, private enterprise, businesses

Maximum 30 places: If funding is a barrier for attendance please contact:
Alana Goldsack dunedincommunitybuilders@gmail.com or 021415530

This workshop will help you:

- Create cohesive groups
- Polish your role as a facilitator
- Explore approaches that build common agendas
- Gather a variety of participation techniques in your tool kit
- Deal with difficult behaviours and conflict
- Develop the ability to move flexibly and adapt with what emerges

With a focus on engaging all parts of the community and bringing together diverse people, voices, groups and sectors, community-led development is challenging. Having the skills, confidence and tactics to convene creative and constructive big picture conversations is essential. This workshop will focus on useful approaches, processes and ideas for bringing and keeping groups and teams together, having conversations that really matter - and having FUN.

For more information please contact Alana dunedincommunitybuilders@gmail.com or 021415530

About your facilitator

CISSY ROCK

Cissy has over 15 years' experience working with communities and local government. She is a passionate agent for change and is committed to working with people to find ways for them to be visible and have a voice. Cissy's strengths lie in professional community development supervision, coaching, facilitation and giving a variety of workshops covering facilitation, ideas into action, how to run great meetings, strategic planning and visioning.

Please register directly at

<https://facilitatingcommunity-ledchange.eventbrite.com>