CLD Workshops

Inspiring Communities' offer a suite of one-day skills workshops that are designed to help you strengthen your community-led practice and local connections in a dynamic group environment.

The majority of our 2021 workshops will run from June to October. So keep an eye out for more updates soon, or contact a member of our team to schedule one in your community.

Koha Contribution

It is important that locals leading change who want to participate in – and contribute to – our learning experiences are able to despite financial constraints (or limited budgets).

If you would like to support us in reaching as many communities as we can with our webinars, resources and newsletters, you can make a koha donation on our website.
